Have you even been resentful that others were not working as hard as you do? It is not uncommon to feel that other people should be doing something you feel is more important than what they appear to be doing. Consider the result of this kind of attitude. You end up frustrated and resentful and the task you are doing also suffers from your distraction. We are not in charge of deciding what others should do. Our concern needs to be on what we are called to do. Keeping our focus where it belongs will give us a peaceful spirit and help us do our task well.

He who...slanders not with his tongue... nor takes up reproach against his neighbor...shall never be disturbed.

-Psalm 15:2, 3,5
