We have all failed to do the good we could have done and have done things that were wrong and even sinful. We may even repeat our behavior many times. Still, if we are open and willing to acknowledge our faults, God forgives us each time. How is it then, that we can hold grudges, deny forgiveness to others, or seek harsh punishments for those who have done wrong? Do we not pray to have our trespasses forgiven as we forgive others? How forgiving are you? Does it reflect how you have been forgiven for your offenses?

"I confess my faults to the Lord, and you took away guilt of my sin" Psalm 32:5

A Graduates Prayer

Father, I have knowledge, so I pray you'll show me now how to use it wisely and find a way somehow To make the world I live in a little better place,
And make life, with its problems,
a bit easier to face...
Grant me faith and courage and put purpose in my days,
And show me how to serve Thee in the most effective ways
So all my education,
my knowledge and my skill,
May find their true fulfillment as I learn to do Thy will...
And may I ever be aware in everything I do That knowledge comes from learning -
And wisdom comes from
You.
