The parable of the wedding banquet should give us pause. As followers of Jesus, we would be among the invited guest who refused to come. Who are the people to come. Who are the people who come - street people, outcast, and even atheists? Then we find out that just showing up does not mean we can stay if we are not dressed properly? What is going on? Being a Christian does not give us a special pass. Everyone receives an invitation to God's banquet; but, only those who accept the invitation and act on it clothing themselves in God's love, will be allowed to participate.
