Epiphany marks the end of the Christmas season. (It officially falls on January 6.) Consider establishing a new tradition based on the three gifts of the Magi and what gifts you will give in this coming year. For Gold (symbol of wealth), decide what will you give in charitable donations this year. For Frankincense (incense prayer offering), write down your own prayer for the coming year and as part of a little prayer service, burn the paper. For Myrrh (use to heal wound as well as embalming material), What wound in your heart needs healing—is there someone you need to forgive? Resolve to hear this and decide how you will do it.

They opened their coffers and presented him with gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. Mathew 2:11

Remember in your Prayers:

Dorothy's Kitchen, Heart & Soul Ministry

Come and join us in preparing and serving lunch for 200 guests at Dorothy's Kitchen on Saturday, January 8th. We will meet at Dorothy's at 10:00 am on Soledad Street or arrive at 9:30 at St Joseph's following mass to carpool together. There are many ways to serve from the actual serving of the food to the gathering of the resources. It's an amazing experience. For donations or questions, please contact Leslie Russo 655-3754 or Fred Doherty 484-5080.

Just a reminder... As you may have noticed, we are now taking up to 2 intentions per mass as allowed by the Diocese of Monterey. This should alleviate some of the waiting time for your mass intentions.
