Even the least of us has something to offer. You can learn something from everyone in your life no matter who they are. Every parent knows they have learned things from their children. God is constantly trying to help us grow in love and often uses unlikely messengers to teach us important lessons. Are you open to learn from others?

Remember in your Prayers:

Matthew Albin, Steve & Patty Atwood, Tatum Bakker, Dorothy Branners, Elyse Burke, Sally Briggs, Mary Hellen, Wesley, Irma Carlton, John Cerna, Richard Courrejou, Al DeCarli, Peggy Eadi, Andree Enos, David Drew, Janine Faylor, Christopher Gomez, Sister Roberta Ann, Henry, Lorraine Jacop, Joanne Johnson, Linda Kerr, Leonard King, Tony Lancia, Joe Leavit, Rosemary Massera, Alex Noland, Matt Rianda, Linda Richmond, Ed Roberti, Bill Slezak, Emma Smith, Robert Sisler, Carson & Pam Souza, Sara Thomas, Jim Thornberry, Theresa Velasquez, Jeff Walbeck, and Garrett Weeks.

If you or someone you know would like the faith community of St. Joseph's Parish to join you in prayer for special needs, contact the parish office, 455-2249. We do remove names after one month, so if we have taken a name from the list of a person still in need of prayers, please give us a call and we happily put him or her back on the list.

January 30, 2011

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

A Blessed New Year to you, to your family and to your parish and community.

Soon we will once again celebrate National Catholic Schools' week from January 30 to February 5, 2011. As a product of Catholic Schools, I personally encourage and urge you to consider sending your children to your local Catholic School.

I am very much aware of the present and growing economic situation and the challenges associated with this reality. However, the values of a Catholic Education in one of our schools should still be a viable option for your prayerful consideration. The faith environment, the signs and symbols of our Church, the knowledge of our New Catechism, and the personal and collective encounters with Christ in prayer are all elements that I have benefitted from so intimately from my own Catholic school education in my youth, and now are so readily and seriously available in our schools.

As I have continued my visits to our Catholic schools this past year, I know the spirit, the joy and the wholesome environment in which the students study, play and pray. I urge you to contact your local Catholic school and inquire about sending your children there.

With best wishes for the New Year, I am

Sincerely Yours in Christ,

+Most Reverend Richard J. Garcia
Bishop of Monterey
