Just because someone doesn't belong to our Church does not mean they are not a good person. Whether they are Muslims, Jews or even atheists, they are still God's children and their actions are far more important than what group they may belong to. Do you sometimes pass judgment on others because of their religion, race, or nationality? Have you ever considered they are also loved by God? How might this insight affect your attitudes and behavior?

Gods shows no partiality. The man of any nation who fears God and acts uprightly is acceptable to him. - Acts 10:34-35
