It is easy and even understandable to feel that we have a "right" to the good things in life when we worked hard and followed all the rules. However when we look at things in terms of "rights," we can feel justified in ignoring the need of others who we perceive as not having "earned" anything. Consider how Jesus treated people. Did he take into account how well they followed the rules or how much they had done to help themselves? Jesus looked at the person's needs and willingness to receive what he could give. If we think we have earned and deserved all that we have, is there any room or openness to receive what God may want to give us? If we see what we have as blessings from God, can we refuse to share these gifts with others?

Happy is he who keeps faith forever, secures justice for the oppressed gives food to the hungry. - Psalm 146:7

NEXT WEEKEND!

Back by Popular demand: FATHER JIM'S TEACHING MASS!

Something to look forward to: at all the weekend liturgies October 2-3, 2010 Fr. Jim's "Teaching Mass." The liturgies will go on in almost their usual way. The difference will be that during the liturgy, Fr. Jim will explain the history and purpose of the ministers, vessels or ritual action at that point of the service. The over-all result should be a better understanding of how and why we celebrate the Eucharist the way we do. Don't miss it! Spread the word!

A Warm Blanket - For A Cold Soul.

With the time and weather change upon us, there will be a collection of gently used blankets, quilts and sheets for the homeless. Last year, we received over 100 donated blankets that were distributed on a dark, cold rainy night on Soledad Street. Many cold souls were praising God. Just drop them off in the parish kitchen after the 9:00 or 11:00 AM Mass or call Leslie Russo 655-3754 and she will be happy to pick them up.

THIS MEETING IS FOR YOU!

At the September 7 meeting altar server neophytes (look it up!) and veterans met, shared and learned together. It was great! Our next meeting occurs on Tuesday, October 5, 2010 @ 7 PM in the church. This is the correct date.

If you have not read it before, be sure you read as far as you can in the Manual for Altar Servers.

If you have read it, then do a review.

Those who attended the last meeting: read the entire pamphlet I gave you and memorize those boxes before the next meeting. You can do it!

Bring your Workbooks and a pencil to the meeting.

Before you arrive, write down one thing in altar serving that you have trouble doing and one thing you would like to learn how to do. I'll collect that piece of paper at the beginning of the meeting and try to address your concern at the meeting time.

Questions and RSVP for October 5: agoroch@stjchurch.org or 455-2249. - See you then! Antonette Goroch
