

Twenty Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time October 21, 2007

We pray in times of crisis and, hopefully, when we go to Church each week; but what about the other times? What kind of relationship would you have with your spouse or children if you only spoke to them once a week even if it was for a whole hour? We are in a relationship with God. While God is always present, listening and speaking to us, too often we are busy doing other things. Think about your relationship with God. How often do you take time to talk to God? Do you allow time for God to talk to you? How could you make some time – even just a few minutes – to spend with God each day?

My help is from the Lord, who made heaven and earth.

–Psalm 121:2

St. Joseph's Podcasts

We've been podcasting the readings and Fr. Jim's homilies for 3 months now and we're coming up on 1,000 downloads!

If you haven't checked it out yet, the podcasts can be heard from the parish bulletin site at <http://www.stjchurch.org/bulletin.htm> and also from iTunes by searching for Spreckels in the podcast section.

By the way, a big thank you to Thomas O'Neill and Mario Federico for making these podcasts available.
