

Dear Liturgy Ministers –

Happy Spring to you all! We're almost to the end of the "busy season." We'll enjoy the Ministry Appreciation Dinner on Saturday, May 1 and then see our parish teen candidates confirmed on Sunday, May 2. All in the past by the time you get this.

First Communion come up at 2 PM on Saturday, May 15 and Sunday, May 16 (if you have friends or relatives receiving this sacrament and would like to serve, please DO let me know ASAP! (455-2249 or agoroch@stjchurch.org)) And also at the 9 AM on Sunday, May 16.

The beautiful green hills, fields of flowers, and even, possibly, buds sprouting in our own gardens let us know that Spring truly has arrived (even if the big winds make it somewhat blustery). Summer can't be and isn't far behind! All good – except for the part where people go away on vacation! That's good, too, of course, but it does put a bit of a strain on the remaining liturgy ministers. You may notice some highlighted "NOT FILLED" notes on your schedules. These occur because there really aren't enough ministers to go around, especially when some are away. You can do at least two things to help the situation: (1) volunteer to fill in the empty space and/or (2) invite others into our ministry. There will be a training/formation meeting for Eucharistic Ministers and those interested in this ministry at 7 PM in the church on Thursday, May 20. For those who can't come out at night, the meeting will be offered at 2 PM as well – but please do let me know if you are interested in coming at that time. Currently there is no Lector's or Altar Servers training/formation on the calendar, but that will happen soon as well.

Now about the schedule: In light of the above, it continues to be true that we're still keeping some people on call for two weeks at a time. Thanks in advance for your patience and understanding.

As always, if you can't serve at the time you're scheduled, please make every effort to find a substitute or trade with someone. If all else fails, then do give a call to the office or to me.

Eucharistic Ministers: Enclosed, please find (at last) your official certificates of authorization. Thank you for choosing this ministry. Thanks to all you faithful ministers for continuing to serve at the altar. You are a blessing to our parish.

May God bless you abundantly!

Antonette Goroch
