

Dear Liturgy Ministers,

Summer greetings! I hope you are enjoying a more relaxed schedule now and have time to “stop and smell the flowers!” When I was making this schedule, I tried to take into consideration the “away dates” many of you gave me. I hope I didn’t miss anything.

Some of you gave me “away dates” after the schedule was already made. I’m sorry if you are scheduled at any of those times, but I would appreciate it if you would try to find a substitute or trade with another minister if you are. Thank you for that!

Meanwhile this note from the last letter remains true:

The fact that people are away on vacation does put a bit of a strain on the remaining liturgy ministers. You may notice some “NOT FILLED” notes on your schedules. These occur because there really aren’t enough ministers to go around, especially when some are away. You can do at least two things to help the situation: (1) volunteer to fill in the empty space and/or (2) invite others into our ministry. The most effective method of attracting new people is your own enthusiasm about your ministry and your personal invitation to prospective ministers.

One challenge for me in recruiting new ministers is to find a time for training that works for everyone. I’m thinking of designating a once-a-month date for training, but for now, (you can tell those folks you invite into ministry) I’ll just work with individuals as they come.

Hail and Farewell:

Kevin Heffernan has decided it’s time to move on from altar serving. Thanks for your service, Kevin. You will be missed! Welcome to Hannah Garibay – not quite on the schedule yet, but coming soon! She will be working with experienced altar servers until she’s ready to be on the schedule.

Also welcome to Margaret Garibay, a new lector and to Tom Koster, a new Eucharistic minister.

And now a few reminders:

Altar Servers

Please review the guidelines for serving before each time you are scheduled to serve. That will help you not to forget important tasks you need to perform during the Mass.

If you do forget to do something and Father Jim starts to do the task himself, don’t rush in front of Father Jim or try to perform the task that he has started. It’s too late. Let it go. Just be sure not to miss what comes next.

When it’s time to wash Father Jim’s hands, be sure to hold the bowl low so that the pitcher doesn’t have to be held very high. And be sure not to bump Father Jim’s hands with either the pitcher or bowl.

Always remain attentive to what is happening in the Mass.

Lectors:

When you come forward to proclaim the reading, please go all the way to the center to bow before the altar – either alone or with the Cantor. Same thing on the way back to your seat.

Before putting out the binder that holds the Prayer of the Faithful, be sure you have the right set of prayers.

When you read the Prayer of the Faithful, be sure to stay at the music stand until Father Jim (or whoever is the presider) has concluded the closing prayer of the intercessions.

After Mass, please return all the books and binder to the sacristy

Eucharistic Ministers

Please don't forget to purify the communion vessels (swirl a little water in the cups and decanter and then consume the water and with it any fragments of hosts or drops of wine that may be left in the vessels) before washing them with soap and water.

Leave Father Jim's chalice and plate for him to purify and wash.

Do all gently.

One last farewell:

As many of you probably know already, we lost a dear, kind Eucharistic Minister and friend, Lonnie Huff this month. Lonnie died on June 5, 2010. His memorial Mass is to be celebrated here at St. Joseph's on Friday, June 18. It's hard to imagine anyone who knew Lonnie not to have been impressed by his generous and loving spirit, his contagious smile and his kind words. We all will miss him very much, none more than his daughter Harriet, son-in-law Alvino, and most especially his devoted and loving wife, Melva. Please keep them all in your prayers.

God bless you all in your ministries and in your lives.

Antonette Goroch
